Brandaris Q52

Where to buy: www.brandarisyachts.nl

Dutch yacht maker Brandaris doesn't quite have the same global and universally accepted cachet as Riva or other big name shipyards, yet the Q52 is a beautifully made craft that's perfect for day cruising and doesn't require a full crew.

With an optional Jacuzzi, a beautifully handcrafted deck with an integrated sun lounger, and two cabins below deck, it's an almighty boat. Since it can cruise at 40 knots, thanks to two 600 bhp engines, it's a match for the Riva on pure performance, too.

You may not have heard of Brandaris yachts, but to see one is to want one.
